

Broadcasting the Buzz ... Your October “Tip”

The Delta Kappa Gamma Society International~ For Key Women Educators

October 2010

Leading Women Educators Impacting Education Worldwide

Have you joined the DKG network? If not, why not? There are groups within the network that allow you to communicate with others with whom you share interest. For example, there are state groups, Broadcasting the Buzz group, Golden Gift Class groups, committee groups, etc. To have one, someone just has to start it by being the monitor. It's fun, it's easy, it's sociable. Do it now.

World Teachers' Day Set for October 5

World Teachers' Day, held annually on October 5 since 1994, commemorates teachers' organizations worldwide. The day is an occasion to celebrate the essential role of teachers in providing quality education at all levels. Over 100 countries observe World Teachers' Day.

According to UNESCO, World Teachers' Day represents a significant token of the awareness, understanding and appreciation displayed for the vital contribution that teachers make to education and development.

Broadcast the Positive Activities DKG Is Doing Throughout the World

Broadcasting the Buzz is the new catch phrase for this biennium. The International Communications and Publicity Committee wants to focus on the many positive activities of DKG and promote these as we share the good news of our Society. Members are encouraged to share projects that their chapter is engaged in that are in the following areas: Activities that: (1) support early career educators, (2) help children/women in underdeveloped countries, (3) strengthen local communities, (4) join with other groups, (5) receive additional funding (describe) through grants or other donations from outside sources.

Please send a short description (100 words or less) that describes the project plus the geographic state name and name of the chapter to the regional representative of the International Communications and Publicity Committee. These representatives can be accessed on the Society Web site, www.dkg.org. Go to Committees, Society Business, and then Communications and Publicity. Click on the name of your regional representative and her email will be displayed. The description can then be sent to her.

The Committee hopes to share the many positive projects that are going on in local chapters as well as stress the International projects of Schools for Africa, the Toms Shoes project and World Fellowships. As chapters describe what is being done locally, please share with the chapters information about the international projects listed above. Information about each one can be found on the Society website.
