

Apply to conduct a break-out session- Due February 15

Be a presenter in New York. Break-out session proposal forms are available, www.dkg.org, on the events page for convention. Send to Dr. Jeni Souders at jsouders3@comcast.net or mail to DKG, PO BOX 1589, Austin, Texas, 78767-1589.

Winter Bulletin

The Winter edition of The Bulletin is now available online. This edition is full of interesting articles from diverse learners to gifted learners. Multiple articles include the abstract only with the entire article found online.

Approaching Deadlines

Due February 1
Scholarship Application
Chapter Biennial Reports
Chapter President's Report
Necrology Chapter Annual Report
Lucile Cornetet Award for Professional Development
International Achievement Award

Due February 15
Break-out session Proposal

International Convention 2012

Registration for the 2012 International Convention is open and online, www.dkg.org, under events or select the icon on the left side of the homepage. Reserve your hotel room now with a link also on the home page.

Convention activities include outstanding speakers at general sessions, a pre-convention seminar with Dr. Bonnie Davis presenting strategies and tips for working with students who don't look like you, another pre-convention training session for webmasters with Diane Moose and Carol McMillian, both of Texas, and stunning break-out sessions from members and non-members.

A panel discussion of the Arts in the city will be a session to attend. A computer lab will be able during convention for break-out sessions and will be open for checking email.

Have you visited the DKG website library lately?

Which library, you might ask? That would be the electronic library on the DKG website. The library is the place to find information of a broad spectrum of Society activities. Blogs by the international president, executive director, information services administrator, membership administrator and the operation services administrator require a click on a link. Learn what these women are doing each month.

Another feature includes program ideas for the fine arts, Society purposes, projects, and a founder quiz that could be used as a chapter meeting program.

The library also includes documents usual to members. You may find Power Point templates, the strategic action plan and tips for creating a chapter action plan.

Resources from international committees can be found quickly. Researchers have access to past issues of the Bulletin and the DKG NEWS.

Many more shelves to explore await visitors. Drop by the library to find what you seek.

